

Family Game Contest

Sponsored By:

Total Victory Ice Cream

Mission:

Design, build, test and install an original game or contest of skill to be played during a family friendly event like Waldoboro Day that can be played for 25 cents for each attempt. Winning designs will win a significant prize yet to be determined.

Purpose:

Engage Families in a stimulating, positive, creative, interactive activity.

Strengthen parent-child bonds

Provide a means to use creative talents of children and adults.

Provide a friendly, but competitive atmosphere among families and kids

Reward creative and collaborative effort

Provide a large pool of games for a family friendly carnival type of event like Waldoboro Day

Execution:

Each game will be rated by contestants as to its popularity. The winning game team will receive a significant prize that will motivate families to compete and win.

Rules:

1. An entry fee of _____ will be collected from each team.
2. Each game must have a unique name.
3. After a design has been tested and declared to be final by the creators, a design sketch and picture must be submitted for approval. Any changes from the final design declaration will disqualify it with a corresponding loss of the entrance fee. A modified design can be submitted as a new design but will require a new entrance fee, sketch and picture.
4. Final design documentation is due _____ days before the event.
5. Any design or activity that is not 100% "G rated" & "Family Friendly" regarding content and safety will disqualify the team and result in the forfeiture of all entry fees.
6. Each game can only charge 25 cents per chance.
7. Players will vote to determine which games were the top three most popular games and prizes will be awarded to those three entrants.
8. Game entrants keep all of their proceeds
9. No modifications can be made from the final design after it is installed without being disqualified.
10. Entries are open until _____ days before the event.
11. See attached page for possible game ideas.
12. Suggestions and comments and collaboration are encouraged and welcomed.
